1. Counsel for the petitioner present. The counsel for the respondent submits that the present writ petition has become infructuous in as much as the order under challenged in the writ petition is an interlocatory order passed below Exh.14 in appeal No.45 of 2005. The counsel also submits that the appeal itself has been decided by the tribunal. The appeal is already allowed and disposed of by the tribunal rendering writ petition infructuous. Hence writ petition is dismissed as infructuous.
